The invitation and luncheon details are on the back of this newsletter. In order to ensure we have an accurate headcount for catering purposes, please complete the invitation with the requested information and return it to us.

On August 20th, ORUD held its annual Safety Day - a time dedicated to reinforcing the values we live by every day. Departments shared knowledge of their roles in a cut line situation, participated in conflict resolution training, and received active shooter preparedness training. At ORUD, safety isn't just a priority for one day, it's a commitment we carry with us all day, every day.
